On Friday, September 7, 2018, at approximately 1:50 pm,

Sgt. Bedley,
CCSO,

phoned me at my desk and requested that I assist him at the County Attorney's Office, with removing Josephine Amattuci.

I am very familiar with Ms. Amattuci, as I have had many conversations with her in past.

Sgt. Bedley and I walked into the C.A. Office waiting room, just outside the office and Ms. Amattuci was sitting there. She asked me my name. She has known me for many years. I served civil papers on her, when I was with the Carroll County Sheriff's Office in the early 2000's. She has sat in my office on several occasions, since I returned to the Sheriff's Office, as the Chief Deputy, in 2013. We have had many phone conversations as well.

She asked the name of the Italian Sheriff. I told her his name. She asked to speak with him. I told her that he was not here. She did not want to speak with me. She stated that were criminals. She wanted to speak with someone in the C.A. Office. I asked her if she had an appointment to see someone. She told me that she has rights, she went on to state that she has Constitutional Rights. She told me it was her First Amendment Right, to speak with someone in the C.A. Office.

Once again, I was informed that no one from the C.A. Office was able to see her, on a Friday afternoon. She got up and walked over to the intercom and pressed the button. It should be noted that her voice had been raised on several occasions up to this point. No one from the C.A. Office answered the intercom. I asked her repeatedly, not to touch the intercom button. I tried to reason with her, that she needed to make an appointment. She continued on with it was her right. I told her that it was not her right, if she was disturbing the peace and yelling and did not have an appointment. I told her repeatedly that she would have to call and make an appointment to speak with someone from the C.A. Office. She stated that she would wait, to see someone. I told her that she was not going to do that without an appointment. She pressed the intercom button somewhere between 5-8 times, I figured. Each time, I asked her not to use the intercom system. I told her that she was disrupting the employees. I had shut the door in the waiting room, to the hall, because I had seen one of the C.A. employees, come out of her office to see what the commotion was. Because Ms. Amattuci had been yelling.

I explained to Ms. Amattuci, that if she did not leave the premises, that she could be arrested. I told her that she simply needed to leave and make an appointment. She became very irate and tried to use her cell phone to call the County Attorney's Office. After many minutes of trying to reason with her and explain to her that she was not going to meet with someone at the C.A. Office, I finally reached over and took her hand and escorted her out of

DISTRICT DIVISION

On August 31, 2018 Chief Deputy David M. Perkins III came into my office and informed me of a conversation he had with the Wolfeboro Police Department. He told me Wolfeboro Police Chief Dean Rondeau was asking for the Belknap County Sheriff's Department to assume an investigation involving an assault with a town employee and a local woman. He told me he would forward the paperwork once received, asked for me to review it and then make a decision if it was a criminal matter.

was later given (4) statements (3) of which were on Wolfeboro Police Department Uniform Statement Forms and (1) was just a typed letter. I reviewed the statements and found the following:

Robert Maloney
DoB: 6/1 '64
Wolfeboro Town Employee

was working on August 7, 2018 at approximately 2 p.m. He was approached by a woman named Josephine Amatuucci, who came into the office at the dump and pushed him down 2 stairs. She then proceeded to yell at Steve Champaigne, who is later identified as the Department Supervisor.

Statements received from:

Steve Champaigne
DoB: 1/10/69
Wolfeboro Town Employee

and

Joshua Nason
DoB: 12/25/93
Wolfeboro Town Employee

indicated similar information. The fourth statement was from:

Adam Tasker
Superintendent of Solid Waste

was reporting what was reported to him about the incident. His involvement is not relevant to this case, although the information will be included.

After a review of the statements, I determined them to be sufficient for case introduction but there would need to be additional information gathered in order to be submitted as a prosecutable criminal case. I called Chief Rondeau of the Wolfeboro Police Department to discuss the matter. I subsequently left a message for him to call me back. We continued to miss each other and returned each others telephone calls. I was able to speak directly to Chief Rondeau on September 4, 2018 at approximately 1219 hours. Chief Rondeau informed me he wanted the Belknap County Sheriff's Department to perform a criminal investigation into this matter. If found to be a criminal matter, his agency prosecutor would take care of the prosecutorial process. He further told me, his department was involved in a lawsuit of some sort with the suspect in this case, along with the Town of Wolfeboro and Carroll County Sheriff's Department. He said it was best handled by a neutral outside agency.

On September 25, 2018 at approximately 1300 hours, I went to the Wolfeboro Solid Waste Facility, 400 Beach Pond Road Wolfeboro, NH to speak with employee and witness:

Steven Champaigne

Upon arrival we met in the upper building office. I explained who I was and why I was there to take a statement/interview him. He informed me he understood. We began the taped statement shortly thereafter. During the interview Mr. Champaigne informed me he was an employee of the Town of Wolfeboro. He has known Josephine Amatucci for approximately 10 years, from her contact with him at the Solid Waste Facility. He stated he was familiar with Robert Maloney's family having legal issues with Ms. Amatucci but nothing directly with Mr. Maloney. He told me on August 7, 2018 at approximately 2 p.m., he and two other employees were taking a water break in the lower building office. He said Robert Maloney was standing in the doorway of the office. Ms. Amatucci made a comment to Mr. Champaigne as she walked by about some patrons making a mess. He responded back to her indicating the issue had been addressed. Ms. Amatucci returned a couple minutes later and pushed Robert Maloney out of the doorway and began yelling at Mr. Champaigne. He said Robert Maloney was knocked off balance and slid down the two steps into the office. He said Ms. Amatucci then left the office area.

He indicated there was no legitimate reason for Ms. Amatucci to touch Mr. Maloney. Further, he said they were hopeful she would be barred from the solid waste facility to avoid future issues. I concluded the statement after speaking with Mr. Champaigne for a few minutes.

Based on the information received from the witnesses and victim in this case, there is probable cause to believe on August 7, 2018 at approximately 1400 hours, Josephine Amatucci did have unprivileged physical contact to another, to wit, Robert Maloney, without being licensed or privileged to do so. I will be drafting a warrant and complaint for her arrest. She refused to speak with me about the incident, to give her recollection of the event.

September 28, 2018 warrants were drafted and approved by Sheriff Moyer and Prosecutor Timothy Morgan. Case will be submitted to Prosecutor Morgan once supplemental narrative is approved and an arrest is made.

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF ARREST

I, Judy Estes, a certified Police Officer in the State of New Hampshire, being duly sworn, set forth below facts establishing that Josephine AMATUCCI, DoB: 09/27/38 of 350 Governor Wentworth Highway in Wolfeboro, New Hampshire has committed the offense of Bail Jumping contrary to RSA 642:8:

1. On February 6, 2019, Josephine AMATUCCI was arraigned before the 3rd Circuit District Division Ossipee Court for the offense of Simple Assault.
2. The Honorable Charles L. GREENHALGH released Ms. AMATUCCI on personal recognizance bail.
3. On June 19, 2019, the Court scheduled a trial regarding the Simple Assault to take place on July 31, 2019 at 9:00am. A Notice of Hearing was sent to Ms. AMATUCCI.
4. Ms. AMATUCCI received the Court's Notice of Hearing for the trial date. She then filed numerous Motions and other documentation informing the Court there was not going to be a trial on July 31, 2019.
5. On July 24, 2019, the Honorable Melissa VETANZE responded to a Motion and informed Ms. AMATUCCI the trial remained scheduled for July 31, 2019, and if she failed to appear it could result in a bench warrant being issued.
6. On July 31, 2019, the State and its witnesses appeared before the 3rd Circuit District Division - Ossipee Court prepared for trial. Ms. AMATUCCI failed to appear.

In accordance with New Hampshire RSA 642:8 Bail Jumping, a person is guilty of an offense if, after having been released with or without bail, she knowingly fails to appear before a Court as required by the conditions of her release.

Ms. AMATUCCI was aware of the trial date, and she knowingly failed to appear before the Court.

Wherefore, I request that the Court issue a warrant and order a duly authorized Officer to take the defendant and bring him before the Court having jurisdiction.

Judy Estes, Detective

Having reviewed the facts contained in this Affidavit, the Justice of the Peace makes a finding that probable cause ☒ exists / ~~does not exist~~ to believe that the above-named Defendant has committed the offense listed herein.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of August, 2019.

Judy Estes, Detective

On November 16, 2018 I called the Elaine Lowe, Clerk of Court for the 3rd Circuit District Division Court - Ossipee. I informed her of the active warrant for Josephine Amatuucci and requested information about bail and arraignment date/time. I was recommended to make arrangements with Ms. Amatuucci to come to the 3rd Circuit Court to be arrested, booked and bailed.

On Monday November 19, 2018 at 0928 hours, I called Ms. Amatuucci to make arrangements for arrest. She answered the telephone. I introduced myself and she told me she did not want to speak to me, then hung up the phone without further discussion. I immediately called back and left a voice mail.

I called Chief Rondeau of the Wolfeboro Police Department and informed him of Ms. Amatuucci's unwillingness to speak with me. He recommended to serve her with a citation/hand summons in lieu of physical arrest.

Ms. Amatuucci had not called me by 1400 hours, so Detective Judy Estes and I went to Ms. Amatuucci's residence. At approximately 1505 hours, we arrived at the residence. Wolfeboro Police assisted by standing by up the road. There was a blue car parked in the driveway, so I knocked on one of the front doors. There was no response from inside. After a couple minutes of me knocking and no answer, I walked to the front of the house and looked through a window. I could see a light on inside. I went back to the door and continued to knock. Detective Estes went to the front windows and knocked. I then heard what sounded like a window open and Ms. Amatuucci's voice could be heard speaking loudly. I walked around the front of the house to see Detective Estes speaking with Ms. Amatuucci through an open window. I began to speak and Ms. Amatuucci stuck her head out of the window and looked at me. She then said she had something for me and handed Detective Estes a white envelope. Detective Estes then handed Ms. Amatuucci the pink citation slip, which was already prepared for in-hand service. Ms. Amatuucci took the citation, looked at it and immediately threw it outside of her window. She then shut the window. I yelled to her the court date was "January 9, 2019 at 0800 in the Ossipee District Court". I took a photograph of where she left the citation for record.

On November 20, 2018 I filed the complaints with the 3rd Circuit Court - Ossipee.

The letter Ms. Amatuucci addressed to me was opened and there was a short letter with a response for Plaintiff's Request for Discovery in a 2006 Strafford County Superior Court Case 06-C-112. The letter, envelop and court document is attached to this case but does not appear to have any bearing on the issue at hand. This case is scheduled for arraignment in the 3rd Circuit District Division Court - Ossipee January 9, 2019 at 0800 hours.

On October 2, 2018 I received a telephone call from Chief Rondeau. He informed me he was made aware by his prosecutor, I had sent the paperwork to him for review. He said he would recommend sending Ms. Amatucci a court appear citation and avoid an actual physical custody arrest and processing. He stated it would be to the best interest in all parties to handle this case as least intrusive as possible, as previous contacts with Ms. Amatucci have caused hostility. He indicated Ms. Amatucci has always shown up at court accordingly and does not believe she would be bailed traditionally. He further told me the Ossipee Court allows for hand summons to be issued on Class B Misdemeanor cases.

As a result of the conversation and direction of Chief Rondeau, I will be sending Ms. Amatucci the court coraplain (sic) via certified receipt mail through the US Postal Service, rather than following through with a tradition (sic) warrant arrest process. November 1, 2018 court date will be given.

The Belknap County Sheriff's Department was also asked by the Wolfeboro Police Department to prosecute this case accordingly.

On Tuesday, 8/7/18, I was informed by the Solid Waste staff of an incident on Monday, 8/6/18, involving Ms. Ammatucci. There was a few people in a U-Haul unloading and separating items and were making a bit of a mess. The staff had already asked them to clean up their area once they were done. As Rob Maloney was standing on the top step of the lower office, Ms. Ammatucci approached the office and pushed Rob backwards down the stairs and into the office. She then proceeded to get in the face of Steve Champaigne to tell them that the people were making a mess to which Steve replied that he had already talked with the people and that they were going to clean up when they were done. She then said something to the affect that Steve always has an attitude. (Steve has never in my 20 + years of working with him ever had an attitude with anyone, let alone the public)

Steve Champaigne, Josh Nason and Rob Maloney were the 3 staff members on duty that day and are witness to the incident.

NARRATIVE FOR SERGEANT WILLIAM WRIGHT

Ref: 18-153-OF

I told him I would conduct the investigation and would be forwarding the conclusion once completed.

On September 7, 2018 I responded to the Wolfeboro Solid Waste Disposal Building, 400 Beach Pond Rd Wolfeboro, NH. At approximately 0940 hours, I met with the victim of this incident:

Robert Maloney

The building office was open and had foot traffic from the busy dump day. I was told we could use the office, but might be interrupted during the interview. I began the recorded interview asking Mr. Maloney about the incident.

He informed me on August 7, 2018 at approximately 2 p.m., he was standing in the doorway of the building office. He witnessed Josephine Amatucci speaking with Supervisor Steve Champaigne about a couple of people who were making a mess with a U-Haul truck. The people had been emptying the truck and had items spread out. Ms. Amatucci was told Mr. Champaigne had already told the people they were to clean up the mess before they left. Ms. Amatucci then walked off. As short time later, Mr. Maloney was still standing in the door way when Ms. Amatucci came to him from the flank. She then pushed him on his left side with her hands, causing him to lose his balance and fall down the two stairs into the office. She followed him into the office and began yelling at Mr. Champaigne, who was already in the room. She argued about the mess caused by the U-haul truck. After a few moments she then left. Mr. Maloney told me Ms. Amatucci did not have permission to put her hands on him. He did not have any injuries as a result of this assault. He told me she had no real reason to push him and that she could have easily walked around him. We were interrupted a couple of times during the interview, with patrons of the dump. The facility was extremely busy and there was limited staff on hand.

When I asked about his relationship with Ms. Amatucci and he told me he knew her from him working at the dump for the last 20 years. He said she was a frequent customer and had no idea what her concern with the U-haul truck was. His recorded statement is part of this report.

I then spoke with:

Joshua Nason

who advised me he was a witness to the assault. Again I audio taped this interview in the same office. Mr. Nason informed me he had seen Ms. Amatucci come up to Mr. Maloney from the side. She then pushed him, causing him to fall down the stairs. She then commenced to yell at Mr. Champaigne telling him he was rude to people. She yelled for a few minutes then left. He said he left the office just after the assault. He said he did not hear of any injuries but he was aware she had no right to push him. His recorded statement is attached to this report.

I was informed Steve Champaigne was on vacation and would not be returning until the 17th. I told the employees I would be following up with him once he returned.

I went to the Wolfeboro Police Department and spoke with a Captain. He gave me an IMC printout of Ms.

I told him I would conduct the investigation and would be forwarding the conclusion once completed.

On September 7, 2018 I responded to the Wolfeboro Solid Waste Disposal Building, 400 Beach Pond Rd Wolfeboro, NH. At approximately 0940 hours I met with the victim of this incident:

Robert Maloney

The building office was open and had foot traffic from the busy dump day. I was told we could use the office, but might be interrupted during the interview. I began the recorded interview asking Mr. Maloney about the incident.

He informed me on August 7, 2018 at approximately 2 p.m., he was standing in the doorway of the building office. He witnessed Josephine Amatucci speaking with Supervisor Steve Champaigne about a couple of people who were making a mess with a U-Haul truck. The people had been emptying the truck and had items spread out. Ms. Amatucci was told Mr. Champaigne had already told the people they were to clean up the mess before they left. Ms. Amatucci then walked off. As short time later, Mr. Maloney was still standing in the door way when Ms. Amatucci came to him from the flank. She then pushed him on his left side with her hands, causing him to lose his balance and fall down the two stairs into the office. She followed him into the office and began yelling at Mr. Champaigne, who was already in the room. She argued about the mess caused by the U-haul truck. After a few moments she then left. Mr. Maloney told me Ms. Amatucci did not have permission to put her hands on him. He did not have any injuries as a result of this assault. He told me she had no real reason to push him and that she could have easily walked around him. We were interrupted a couple of times during the interview, with patrons of the dump. The facility was extremely busy and there was limited staff on hand. IT WAS INTERRUPTED BY THE FACT THAT THE CHAMPAGNE'S TESTIMONY

Mr. Maloney - was heard shouting in the hallway.
When I asked about his relationship with Ms. Amatucci and he told me he knew her from him working at the dump for the last 20 years. He said she was a frequent customer and had no idea what her concern with the U-haul truck was. His recorded statement is part of this report.

could not give the Plaintiff a reason why he was convicting her at the trial. There was no reason, as she never committed an Assault on Maloney, and without an Assault, without bodily injury, the case was not proecutable, so there would be no reason for Judge greenhalgh to CONVICT HER. Therefore, Judge Greenhalgh must reverse the Conviction

19. The Plaintiff an 81 year old person has suffered enough of the defendants false and FRAUDULENT MISREPRESENTATION

20. Police Chief Rondeau used this Conspiracy in RETALIATION because she has a lawsuit against the Carroll County Sheriff's Dept. of which he is involved. And he convinced the Belnap Sheriff's Dept. to conspire with him against her, by telling them of her case she has against the Carroll County Sheriff's Dept.

Respectfully,

Josephine Amatucci

NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

A person convicted of a violation level offense or a class B misdemeanor has the right to appeal the decision of the District Division by filing an appeal with the New Hampshire Supreme Court. This appeal is only on questions of law which means that the Supreme Court will not consider questions of fact already decided by the District Division. With limited exceptions, the person convicted has 30 days from the date of sentencing to file an appeal with the Supreme Court.

A person convicted of a class A misdemeanor has the right to appeal the decision of the District Division to the Superior Court and to have a trial by jury. The person convicted must notify the District Division of the intent to appeal within 72 hours of sentencing.

If you will need an interpreter or other accommodations for this hearing, please contact the court immediately. Please be advised (and/or advise clients, witnesses, and others) that it is a Class B felony to carry a firearm or other deadly weapon as defined in RSA 625.11, V in a courtroom or area used by a court.
